HAMAS fighters seek to block Israeli advance on Gaza City

Jerusalem (Gaza) - Israeli Hamas fighters have begun blocking Israeli forces from advancing on Gaza City. The Israeli military has begun an offensive against Hamas in the Gaza Strip, but the fighters have so far blocked Israeli forces from reaching the city, setting up a complex battle of attrition. The Israeli military has reported that their forces have achieved some success, but they have encountered strong resistance from Hamas fighters. The Israeli military has also reported that they have suffered losses, with several soldiers reportedly killed or injured.

Police and Hamas fighters in Gaza City have exchanged gunfire, with both sides claiming victory. The Israeli military has reported that they have destroyed several Hamas positions, while Hamas fighters have claimed to have killed several Israeli soldiers.

The Israeli advance has been met with strong opposition from Hamas fighters, who have blocked Israeli forces from entering the city with heavy resistance. The Israeli military has reported that they have encountered strong resistance, with Hamas fighters using tunnels and other underground systems to set up traps for Israeli forces.

The conflict has also sparked international concern, with the United Nations calling for an immediate cease-fire to prevent further casualties. The United Nations has urged both sides to engage in negotiations to find a peaceful solution to the conflict.

Zardari Confident About Forming Next Government

PPP and MML-N Welcome ECP’s Announcement of Poll Date

While President Zardari and MML-N leaders welcomed the announcement of the election date, PPP’s Nawaz Sharif expressed disappointment at the delayed announcement.

PPP was one of the few parties that had called for a special assembly to dissolve the parliament and hold new elections. The party had also been vocal in its criticism of the previous government's policies, particularly the handling of the economy.

PPP President Asif Ali Zardari said that the announcement of the election date was a positive development for the country and its people. He added that the PPP would work hard to ensure a fair and free election.

While Zardari welcomed the announcement, MML-N leader Mian Sharif said that his party would continue to work for a free and fair election. Mian Sharif also expressed concern about the possibility of fraud in the upcoming election.

IMF Warns Pakistan There Will Be No Compromise On Targets Set Under Loan Deal

Prime Minister Yousuf Raza Gilani enters a high-level meeting with representatives from Pakistan’s six biggest banks. The prime minister has been meeting with officials from the country’s six biggest banks as part of efforts to secure a rescue package from the International Monetary Fund (IMF). The IMF has been pressing the government to make a series of reforms to the country’s economy, including cutting subsidies, increasing taxes, and reducing government spending.

Pakistan has been facing a severe economic crisis, with the country on the verge of defaulting on its foreign debt. The government has been under pressure to implement structural reforms to ensure that the country can access international borrowing.

The prime minister met with representatives from the country’s six biggest banks in an attempt to secure a rescue package from the IMF. The meeting was held in Islamabad, with representatives from the country’s six biggest banks attending.

New Zealand call up Kyle Jamieson as cover for Matt Henry

MUMBAI: Some 50 fast bowlers were summoned to India and Bangladesh teams to field a few players in the upcoming World Cup. The India team, which has already named its 16-man squad, now has two more players - Kyle Jamieson and Matt Henry - in its list. Jamieson, the 21-year-old New Zealand seamer, is a potential weapon against the Indian batsmen. Henry, on the other hand, is a seasoned campaigner who has played over 100 ODIs and 36 Tests for New Zealand. The New Zealand Cricket Board (NZC) announced the call-up on Friday, saying it wanted to strengthen the bowling department ahead of the World Cup. The move is part of the board's strategy to prepare for the World Cup, which starts on May 31. The India team, which is currently in Australia for a three-match series, is expected to announce its final squad soon. The World Cup is set to be held in India from June 14 to July 12. The tournament will be the first World Cup to be held in India since the 2016 edition.

President Ali Avliya Violated Constitution By Not Providing Poll Date: CJP Isa

ALAMABA: Chief Justice of Pakistan (CJP) Isa Ali Ramzan Ali Avliya, in a letter to President Alvi, on Thursday reminded him of his obligation to provide the election date, adding that he was “diligently acting” as a free and legal leader.

He made these remarks in light of the president’s announcement that he will dissolve the National Assembly by Thursday. He noted that the president’s declaration was aimed at preventing the upcoming election.

President Alvi had been summoned to the Supreme Court to explain his decision to dissolve the National Assembly, and the hearing is scheduled for Tuesday.

CJP Isa also reminded the president of the “violations of Article 252 of the Constitution,” adding that the president had repeatedly failed to provide the election dates in the past.

The court was informed during the hearing that the government’s preparations for the election were “not yet ready” and that the government was “not fit to hold the next election.”

CJP Isa also informed the court that the president’s failure to provide a poll date had led to the Supreme Court’s decision to order the election commission to hold the election.
